LET US GET STARTED!

BRIEF ITINERARY

Kumara Parvatha

Mallalli Waterfalls

Manjarabad Fort

Everyone loves to travel, explore untouched trails, immerse in nature, and escape the daily routine, but many of us are unaware of the hidden gems around us or lack a proper plan to visit them. The Western Ghats of Karnataka are home to some of the most iconic trekking routes, perfect for a weekend adventure. Here we have a two-day itinerary for you to the most challenging and rewarding trail of all, Kumar Parvatha.

The Kumara Parvatha peak is situated within the Pushpagiri Wildlife Sanctuary in the Western Ghats of Karnataka. It is the second-highest peak in Kodagu district after Tadiandamol and Karnataka's fourth-highest peak.
Kumara Parvatha Trek, also referred to as Pushpagiri Trek spans about a total of 25-28 kms from the base and is usually completed over two days in leisure. Maximum altitude reached during the trek will be about 1700 meters from mean seal level. The scintillating views from the top, giant rocks and cool breeze/mist will make all the effort worthwhile.
